

DRA2 FAQs

MIDDLE OF YEAR – MOY

What data will be entered in Aware?

- The DRA2 data will be entered into Aware for each student in K-2.

Who will be entering DRA2 data into Aware?

- The classroom teacher will enter DRA data on students into Aware.
- For SPED teachers, the teacher who supervises the reading instruction is advised to administer and communicate to classroom teacher to enter in Aware.

Will Grades 3-5 be expected to enter data into Aware?

- No, Grades 3-5 are not expected to enter data into Aware
- Grades 3-5 were expected to complete a DRA2 on students below DRA level of 30 and/or Lexile 500
- Students administered the DRA2 are identified primarily as Tier 3.
- Documentation is vital for RTI purposes and campus data.

How will data for K-2 be entered into Aware?

- The data will be entered under the MANAGE tab in Aware within the “Student Inventory” folder.
- The new student inventory will be titled “DRA2”.
- Teachers will add the DRA level along with a few other selections provided in a drop-down manner. It will be a user-friendly inventory.
- The Student Inventory folder will be able to be accessed for data upload next Wednesday, January 21 in Aware.
- Detailed directions, including screenshots, will be sent to all administrators, instructional coaches, and Grades K-2 Point People on Wednesday, January 21.

Why are we entering DRA2 data district wide into Aware?

- DRA2 is used as a reading benchmark assessment to monitor growth throughout the school year. Keeping data in Aware will allow tracking of student growth each year.

